STORE KEEPER HOOSE PUT UP A RUNNING FIGHT.

BLEW SAFE WITH DYNAMITE

An Unsuccessful Attempt Was Made To Rob Bank at Milford, Conn. Also Today.

Cleveland, Dec. 31.—At Nottingham, a suburb, burglars blew the post office safe in the general store J. B. Hoose this morning, got $300 in money and stamps and merchandise. Mr. Hoose was awakened by the noise, gave battle, shot at the burglars and chased them four miles to Collinwood where he lost them. The burglars left a trail of blood and merchandise along their path. Hoose's store was badly wrecked.

Milford, Conn., Dec. 31.—An unsuccessful attempt was made this morning to blow open the safe in the Milford Savings Bank. Watchman Querk frightened the thieves, three in number, away.

NEW HOME

AT MARION NOW IN CHARGE OF MR. AND MRS. HAND.

Architect Mills Praises the New Building—Furniture is Now Being Secured.

Marion, O., Dec. 31.—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Hand, formerly of Newark, superintendent and matron, respectively of the Waddell Children's Home here, are now nicely located in the new Home which was opened last week.

The place will be completely furnished as soon as the county commissioners can do it. This work necessarily requires some time for the reason that this is a practically new proposition for them, but under the wise judgment of Mrs. Hand, the furniture is being secured with a view to beauty as well as utility.

In a letter architect Wilbur T. Miller writes to Benj. Waddell in part as follows:

"While there are many such buildings finer in some ways, larger, and more costly, yet I am confident that there is no such building anywhere more carefully built, or which more nearly fulfills ideal conditions, considered from a constructional standpoint. This is due not only to the co-operation of the contractors but also to the experienced judgment and good taste of Mr. Amos Kling, who was associated with you in the direction of this enterprise. I candidly believe that it would be difficult to find any such buildings, erected under state or county patronage which would be the equal to this building at twice its cost."

BY FOUR MASKED MEN IN HIS HOME.

FARMER HALLENBECK WAS THE VICTIM.

TESTIMONY BEFORE CORNER

Widow and Mother of Murdered Man. Eye Witnesses, Corroborate the Suspect's Confession.

Hudson, N. Y., Dec. 31.—Testimony before the coroner corroborated the confession of Harvey Bruce, one of the four young men charged with the assassination of Peter Hallenbeck, a wealthy farmer at Greenport, on Christmas eve. The testimony of Mrs. Margaret L. Hallenbeck, the widow, was to the effect that four men participated in the murder, one setting the previous belief that one held a horse near the barn while three others went to the house. Mrs. Hallenbeck declared that she and her husband saw a wagon passing on the highway, with two men walking behind it. Soon after four men came walking back, wearing coats inside out. They disappeared down the road. She, Hallenbeck and his mother all saw them from the window. Her husband said they must be chicken thieves, and watched them till out of sight. Presently there was a knock at the kitchen door. Her husband went to open it, and she accompanied him. When he opened the door four pistols were thrust in his face and all were fired. Hallenbeck jumped back and gave his wife a push out of the way. The four men jumped into the room after him, and all fired again. Hallenbeck turned toward the stairway for his gun, when his assailants all fired again. All the men wore masks and had coats turned inside out. The evidence of Mrs. Almira Hallenbeck, the mother, who is 80 years old, bore out the testimony of her daughter-in-law.

George Greenwood of Stockport testified that on Christmas eve he saw Harvey Bruce, with whom he was well acquainted, get out of a wagon at the Brookside hotel, Stockport. He spoke to Bruce but received no answer. He could not see if others were in the wagon. Greenwood's evidence is important, because at the hour Greenwood says he saw Bruce at Stockport, Mrs. Van Wormer swore all four boys were at home eating supper, seven miles away.

The testimony was considered by the officials to be greatly against the prisoners. Sheriff Harry J. Best, who visited the Hallenbeck house on the night of the tragedy and examined the various footprints and wagon tracks in the snow that had previously fallen, testified that he and his assistants searched the Van Wormer house at Kinderhook and found three revolvers. A fourth one was found next day. The shoes the prisoners wore when arrested Sheriff Best fitted into the snowprints at the Hallenbeck house noted the night before, and other tracks were found next day.

GRIGGS

Is a Candidate for the Seat Made Vacant by the Death of U. S. Senator Sewell.

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 31.—Leading Republicans of the state in conference here discussed the vacancy in the United States senate caused by death of General Sewell. Among those who took part in the conference were Governor Voorhees, First Assistant Postmaster General Johnson, Congressman Charles N. Fowler and others. At one of the conferences State Senator E. B. Stokes of Cumberland county was urged to become a candidate for United States senator. He expressed an unwillingness to act in the matter until after the funeral of General Sewell. There is no question, however, but that he will announce himself as a candidate for the place. The candidates in the field besides Senator Stokes are State Assessor David Baird of Camden, County Clerk Barker Guinnere of Mercer, John S. Dryden of Essex and Attorney General John W. Griggs, whose candidacy will also be announced after General Sewell's funeral.

Children Bitten by Rattlesnake. Crawfordsville, Ind., Dec. 31.—Willie and Mary Daniels, aged 5 and 7 years, living near Sand Creek, were bitten in several places by a large rattlesnake that had taken refuge from the cold weather in a stick of wood. The piece of wood had been carried into the house and placed behind the stove to dry. The parents of the children were attracted by their screams from the kitchen and were horrified to find the snake coiled in the little girl's lap. Her brother caught the reptile by the tail and was bitten on the hand. The girl was bitten twice upon the leg. The snake was killed. It was four feet long and had seven rattles and a button. The child will be taken to Terre Haute for treatment.

Cuban Elections.

Washington, Dec. 31.—Beginning today a general election is being held throughout Cuba. Presidential and senatorial electors, members of the house, governors of the provinces and provincial councils, will be chosen. The results of the elections now in progress will have a most far-reaching effect upon the ultimate destiny of the new born republic. In many respects the system followed in the Cuban elections resembles that of this country.

Germany is now the best educated nation of Europe, yet not hundreds of years ago German teachers in many parts of the country were so poorly paid that they used to sing in front of houses in order to add to their income by odd pence.

AMERICAN COAL

Is Now Finding Its Way Into France And Shipments Will Increase, It Is Thought.

Washington, Dec. 31.—Two weeks ago, for the first time in the history of the port, a vessel direct from Philadelphia unloaded a cargo of coal on the Rouen quays, says Consul Haynes, in a report to the state department, dated Rouen, setting out the prospects of American coal in France. He says in southern France the importation of American coal has passed the experimental stage, and that notwithstanding the nearness of English, Belgian and German coal fields, American coal has begun to filter into northern France at different points. "It is infiltration is successfully begun with the employment of foreign shipping," says Mr. Haynes, "it can be only a matter of time when the United States, with her own vessels, will supply most, if not all, of the French deficiency."

French Ambassador's Views. New York, Dec. 31.—M. Cambon, the French ambassador, said on his arrival here: "There is no question under discussion at present between the United States and France which is of so much moment to both as the impending treaty which we laid before your people some time ago. It is for you to act upon it, and, reciprocal in its terms, I believe it will be equally for the best interests of both nations. Perfect friendship exists between us in all matters. Why not a treaty that will permit of a fair interchange of products? It remains for the people of the United States to answer 'yes.'"

MATCHED

Have Been Jeffries and Sharkey—Fitzsimmons Claims He Would Have Taken Jeff's Offer.

New York, Dec. 31.—Bob Fitzsimmons was seen at his home at Bath Beach and informed that Jeffries and Sharkey had been matched. He said: "From reading the many advance notices sent by Jeffries and Delaney from the west during the last few weeks, I was led to believe that Jeffries was not after me and was coming to town to make me extraordinary inducements to fight him. I have not received any great offer he had to make. I have retired from the ring, but I certainly would have considered any offer Jeffries or his manager had to make had I received it."

Jeffries and Sharkey Matched. New York, Dec. 31.—Jim Jeffries and Tom Sharkey have been matched for a fight which will involve the heavyweight fist championship of the world. Billy Delaney, who is Jeffries' manager, met Tom Sharkey and his manager, Barney Reich, at Tom Foley's resort here. Delaney said that he was anxious to induce Bob Fitzsimmons to meet the champion once more and he had given him due notice of his whereabouts, but neither Fitzsimmons nor any representative of his put in an appearance, so Delaney clinched the bargain with Sharkey. According to the articles of agreement the fight will take place on any day between March 17 and April 30, before the club offering the best inducement.

BISHOP

SAYS THAT PROHIBITION IS A FRAUD

DR. RAINSFORD IN SPEECH WENT STILL FURTHER.

SUNDAY CLOSING DISCUSSED

At a Meeting of the Church Club and Some Unusual Utterances Were Made.

New York, Dec. 31.—At a meeting of the church club last night to discuss the "Exercise law and Sunday closing" Bishop Potter said that prohibition was a fraud and a failure and where ever enforced produced a race of frauds and hypocrites and also that prohibitionists were hypocrites. The only way to deal with the question was to educate the masses.

Dr. Rainford, who followed Bishop Potter went further and said "The saloon is a democratic institution and has come to stay. We have no right to force by legal methods our christian sentiments on a community. We have no right to depart from the wishes of the masses. The Woman's Christian Temperance Union consists of good women who are doing the devil's work. He said "The saloon was not an evil place or a place for evil men and that it filled a positive need in the city."

AFFRAY

AT IRONTON TODAY CAUSES TWO DEATHS.

ENCOUNTERED BETWEEN MONNING AND FRANK WILSON.

THE LATTER WAS JEALOUS

Hon. George A. Grove Killed at Miamisburg Today With a Razor.

Iron-ton, O., Dec. 31.—A shooting affray occurred this morning at the residence of Frank Monning as a result of which Monning is dead and Frank Wilson, his son-in-law, is fatally injured.

Wilson went to his father-in-law's house to see his wife. A quarrel ensued and Monning, grabbing up a shot gun, shot Wilson's right arm off near the shoulder. Though frightfully wounded, Wilson drew a revolver and shot Monning through the heart. Wilson was jealous of his wife's attention to her step-brother.

Monning lived three miles from Iron-ton. Two years ago Wilson married his daughter but they separated owing to jealousy. When Wilson went to see his wife a quarrel with his father-in-law resulted. Wilson is 25 and Monning 55 years old.

FRESHET

In the James River is the Heaviest in Years—Great Damage to Property.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 31.—There has been a tremendous rush of water down the James river. The people in the lower part of the city are moving out and the wharves at Rocketts are under water. The extreme lower part of the city is cut off. Owing to the fact that the wires are down along the James river division of the Chesapeake and Ohio, nothing can be learned definitely of the conditions above. Fears are entertained that the freshet will be the heaviest in years. No fatalities have been reported. The Rapidan took a tremendous rise, putting the Fredericksburg gas works and electric light plant under water and plunging the city into darkness.

Floods Abating. Philadelphia, Dec. 31.—From all parts of eastern Pennsylvania reports show that the rivers and creeks, which became greatly swollen as a result of continuous rain, are steadily falling. There is one exception, however, the lower part of the Susquehanna river being reported to be still rising and close to the danger line. Although considerable damage was done, the losses will not be great, most of the flooded areas being lowlands along the upper Schuylkill, Lehigh and Susquehanna rivers. In the anthracite coal districts a few of the mines were flooded, causing a suspension of work for the day.

Dam Damaged.

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 31.—The flood in the Tallapoosa river broke the dam of the Tallapoosa Electric company, 180 of the 670 feet of solid masonry giving way. The dam cost $400,000. The power was to have been turned into Montgomery early in January. Two hundred feet of the Tallapoosa cotton mill's stone dam was broken and the loss is estimated at $50,000. The rainfall was over seven inches and 10 feet of water poured over the whole length of the power company's dam.

Traffic Impeded.

Roanoke, Va., Dec. 31.—Railroad traffic in southwestern Virginia has been seriously interfered with for the past 48 hours owing to the heavy fall of snow and rain during the last two weeks. ## GOVERNMENT BY INJUNCTION.

Government by injunction is met by a bill introduced in Congress by Judge Bartlett of Georgia, which regulates the trial of cases for contempt of court by the United States judges. It provides that judges may summarily punish acts of contempt committed in the court, but that those accused of contempt outside the court shall be entitled to a jury trial. This is common sense and accords with the bill introduced in the Senate by Governor Hill of New York, and which passed that body without dissent, but was not acted on in the House, and therefore failed to become a law. Every court should possess the power to enforce order and dignity in its proceedings, but that is very different from authority to set aside trial by jury for offenses committed hundreds of miles from the court, and which are properly subjected to indictment and trial by jury. Government by injunction is simply a short cut to get away from the exercise of a constitutional right. On this point the New York Journal well says: "The American bench is threatened with no external dangers. Respect for courts is ingrained in the Anglo-Saxon character. So long as a court deserves to be revered the reverence will be forthcoming. No upright judge, doing justice with an even hand and owing nothing to politicians or powerful financial interests, need fear that anybody whose esteem is worth having will hold him in contempt. Judges of any other kind cannot command respect, and it would be lamentable were respect accorded them."

An agent of the London war office who has been buying horses in America for South African service says he has had a world of trouble in getting beasts of the right sort for cavalry remounts, and that when the horses are delivered at the seat of war the expense of England is several times the original cost of the animals in the United States. He declares that England is compelled to send to many countries and to pay big prices in order to obtain the horses which are needed for the pursuit of the guerrilla bands of the Boers and the brutes are soon made useless by the change of climate and the hardships to which they are unavoidably subjected. Those fugitive and elusive commandoes seem to require a vast amount of chasing.

The anxiety of the state department to make some sort of a treaty with Great Britain relative to the canal has led to the ratification of a compact which requires a vast amount of explanation. In many respects it is so blind that it may mean one thing as well as another.

On the floor of the senate the gentlemen who represented the administration practically admitted that the treaty did not in words provide for the things which the senate all along has considered of prime importance, but it was argued that as these things were not specifically forbidden, it could be held that they were within the rights of the United States.

The treaty which the senate rejected provided in plain terms that the canal to be built by the American people should be free to the vessels of war of all nations in time of war and that the owners of the canal should not have the right to fortify it. The senate demanded the right of fortification and insisted upon unrestricted control by the United States in time of war as well as in time of peace.

In other words it was held that if the American people were to build the canal their object in so doing would be national defense quite as much as promotion of commerce, and that any agreement by which they were prevented from closing the canal to an enemy in war would be an absurd sur-

Mr. Davis' distinguished success in giving away everything in the first treaty has now been followed by the acceptance of a treaty which leaves all of the disputed points uncovered, and the senate has ratified it on the theory that it is so blindly drawn that we are as much entitled to our own interpretation as anybody else is to his.

Treaty or no treaty, the control of the canal in time of war will depend upon the ships and men of the United States and their antagonists. We can keep the passage open to our own ships and we can close it to the ships of our enemies if we have the power and not otherwise. It will be well for all concerned to bear this fact in mind.

There is a vacancy in a congressional district of New York that is to be filled by special election early in January. It brings to the front the Belmont family as Perry Belmont has secured the Democratic nomination and is opposed by a bolting candidate brought into the field by Richard Croker. Perry Belmont is active in politics and secured considerable prominence in Congress some years ago. He is a brother of O. H. P. The British General Kitchener and the American General Chaffee are not far apart in their views of the military forces that England and the United States must maintain in South Africa and the Philippines to make secure their conquests and acts of oppression and tyranny generally. Kitchener says he must have an army of 60,000 men in South Africa for an indefinite period after peace has been established. General Chaffee thinks about 50,000 American soldiers will be the correct tally for the Philippines. After they both get through they should add another international peace conference to deal out more sham and cant.

The Filipinos are not our enemies. They do not care to injure one hair of Uncle Sam's head. But they would like to have their own heads spared. One who defends himself is not an enemy. One who defends himself against a more powerful antagonist is not a traitor. That more powerful antagonist is a bully. Is our position in this matter not very questionable?

RETRIBUTION

Mr. Davis' distinguished success in giving away everything in the first treaty has now been followed by the acceptance of a treaty which leaves all of the disputed points uncovered, and the senate has ratified it on the theory that it is so blindly drawn that we are as much entitled to our own interpretation as anybody else is to his.

Treaty or no treaty, the control of the canal in time of war will depend upon the ships and men of the United States and their antagonists. We can keep the passage open to our own ships and we can close it to the ships of our enemies if we have the power and not otherwise. It will be well for all concerned to bear this fact in mind.

There is a vacancy in a congressional district of New York that is to be filled by special election early in January. It brings to the front the Belmont family as Perry Belmont has secured the Democratic nomination and is opposed by a bolting candidate brought into the field by Richard Croker. The district went Democratic last fall by 4,000 majority, but if the party is divided the Republican candidate will probably slip in. Perry Belmont is active in politics and secured considerable prominence in Congress some years ago. He is a brother of O. H. P. Belmont, an enthusiastic Bryan man, elected to the House at the last election, and both are sons of August Belmont, formerly of National reputation as a leading banker and chairman of the Democratic National committee.

The British General Kitchener and the American General Chaffee are not far apart in their views of the military forces that England and the United States must maintain in South Africa and the Philippines to make secure their conquests and acts of oppression and tyranny generally. Kitchener says he must have an army of 60,000 men in South Africa for an indefinite period after peace has been established. General Chaffee thinks about 50,000 American soldiers will be the correct tally for the Philippines. After they both get through they should add another international peace conference to deal out more sham and cant.

The Filipinos are not our enemies. They do not care to injure one hair of Uncle Sam's head. But they would like to have their own heads spared. They would like to have their own land and liberties to govern and enjoy in accordance with their own desires and beliefs. Do we not err in calling them our enemies? One who defends himself is not an enemy. One who defends himself against a more powerful antagonist is not a traitor. That more powerful antagonist is a bully. Is our position in this matter not very questionable?

A TWO-FOLD ATTACK

In Connection With the Application For Injunction.

NORTHERN PACIFIC CASE ANALYZED.

Court Grants an Injunction Against the Disposition of the Preferred Stock of the Company—Meeting of the Governors and Van Sant's Plan of Action.

Minneapolis, Dec. 31.—The bill of complaint in connection with the application for injunction which was granted against the disposing of the preferred stock in the Northern Pacific Railway company, on the application of the attorneys of Peter Power of New York, contains a two-fold attack. The first ground of attack is that such disposition substitutes for non-cumulative preferred stock, which constitutes no lien or charge of any kind against the property, debenture bonds with fixed annual interest, which is liable to be merged at any time in a lien—if not already—contrary to any provisions of the reorganization agreement that no mortgage or other lien shall be placed on the property. The second ground is that the attempted retirement of the preferred stock is merely one step to a general scheme which is illegal and which is charged to be a conspiracy to throw the management of three competing and parallel roads into the hands of a New Jersey corporation, and the affidavit and bill sustain the charge that this is merely an attempt to control these three roads by one foreign corporation.

Meeting of Governors.

Helena, Mon., Dec. 31.—No action was taken at the meeting of the governors and attorneys general of the northwestern states, called to consider plans for opposing the proposed consolidation of the Northern Pacific, Great Northern and Burlington railway systems. From the discussion at these meetings, however, it is considered probable that the plan of Governor Van Sant of Minnesota will be endorsed by the executives of other states who were present, and that the fight against the railroad consolidation will be carried to a finish.

Wilcox Safe.

Elizabeth City, N. C., Dec. 31.—Excitement over the Cropsey case is dying out and business is being resumed. The talk of lynching James Wilcox is heard no longer, the people having decided to permit the law to take its course. The citizens' committee and Solicitor Ward are collecting evidence against Wilcox to present to the grand jury when it meets in March next. Wilcox is still in jail here and the town authorities expect no further trouble. Any attempt to get Wilcox out on bail will be resisted by Solicitor Ward.

A Holdup.

Boston, Dec. 31.—A man entered the office of the Prudential Insurance company in Roxbury, and, pointing a revolver at the young woman cashier, Wilhelmina Knott, demanded what money she had. Terrified, she gave him about $50 which was in the drawer. The police have not been able to trace him.

Brief Bout.

Philadelphia, Dec. 31.—Joe Youngs of Buffalo was completely outclassed by Joe Gans of Baltimore in a scheduled six round bout at the opening of the new Washington Sporting club. Gans had everything his own way from the start and in the fourth round Youngs had enough and retired.

Father Crowley Doing Penance.

Chicago, Dec. 31.—It is reported that Father Jeremiah J. Crowley, the excommunicated priest of the Catholic church at Oregon, Ill., has left Chicago to do penance in a western monastery in order that he may be restored to his standing in the church.

Sad Suicide.

Vienna, Dec. 31.—Dr. Holzinger, a well known judge and vice president of the criminal court, committed suicide by shooting. He had been greatly depressed owing to a fear that he was going blind.

Taft on Board.

Washington, Dec. 31.—The war department is informed that the transport Grant arrived at Nagasaki on her way to San Francisco. Governor Taft is a passenger on this vessel.

Pope's Ailment.

London, Dec. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Rome says that the pope is subject to serious fainting fits.

Turf Winners.

At Charleston, S. C.—Soudans, Clifton, Nor, San Lazarus, Ego, Venturo, Two Bonnies.
At San Francisco—Tower of Candies, Canoe, Flo Culver, Wroming, Rose Omond, McNamee.
At New Orleans—Salme, Marie, Jell, Golden Link, Eske, Death, Emma A.

TO THE POINT.

Thieves carried off the millinery stock of Helene Flaque, Goshen, Ind. Fire damaged the Rogers wheel works at Anroia, Ind., to the extent of $10,000.

Mr. Parrish first came to Newark in the eighties, when he held the position of passenger agent for the Pan Handle, afterwards being transferred to Washington, Pa., where he remained some time when he returned to Newark in 1894 and succeeded the late A. B. Jackson as freight agent, and also charge of the Penney farm and development it with wonderful success.

Ever since Mr. Parrish first came to Newark he has devoted his energies to the upbuilding and development of the city, and to his indefatigable work, in a great measure, belongs the credit of starting the business boom in Newark in the very middle of the financial crisis, and holding it up until the whole town became imbued with the spirit of progress and real estate development. The railroad office has, at the same time, increased over three hundred per cent, under his management. During his stay in Newark Mr. Parrish has made friends who will regret to learn that he is about to take up his work in a new and broader field, but they wish for him and his family a like measure of success that has characterized his work here. It is not known at this writing who his successor will be. Mr. Parrish's family will remain in Newark until April or May, when they will join him in Pittsburg.

BASEBALLAmerican Association Magnates Complete Their Organization at Kansas City, Mo.

Kansas City, Dec. 31.—Representatives of the eight cities which are to comprise the circuit of the new baseball league, the American Association, as outlined by its promoters, met in executive session at the Baltimore hotel in this city and took the necessary action to complete the organization of the association. Three secret sessions were held behind closed doors, with President T. J. Hickey in the chair. The most important business transacted consisted of the adoption of a constitution, the awarding of the various franchises officially to the respective magnates of the association, and especially the disposition of the Omaha franchise. The circuit is composed of Indianapolis, Columbus, Toledo and Milwaukee in the east and Kansas City, Omaha, Minneapolis and St. Paul in the west.

English Pupils Coming.
London, Dec. 31.—The plan suggested by Alfred Mosely, the Englishman who made a big fortune in the South African diamond fields, to send Englishmen to America to study commercial methods, was endorsed by a recent meeting presided over by Lord Reay, chairman of the London school board and including Sir Joshua Fitch, chief inspector and secretary respectively of the Technical Education board of the London city council. As a result the first expedition of pupils will leave here in August for a four months' stay in the United States. It will consist of a commission of two or three members of parliament, the heads of some of the biggest business houses, a few labor leaders and representatives of leading universities.

Geronimo to Be Released.
Guthrie, O. T., Dec. 31.—General Frank Armstrong, as agent of the war department, is at Fort Sill, O. T., making arrangements for the release of Chief Geronimo and the 288 Arizona Apache Indians, who are held by the government as prisoners of war. They were captured by General Lawton's years ago after a 3,000 mile campaign. They will be allotted land by the government. The Ottawa Indians have prepared a petition to congress asking that all restrictions be removed, this winter from inherited nonresident and surplus lands, and from all but 40 acres of each allotment.

Braided His Wife.
Lyndon, Kan., Dec. 31.—Albert Doty, living near here, killed his wife by beating her over the head with a gun-barrel. Doty then escaped, and later his horribly mutilated body was found on the Missouri Pacific railway north of town. He probably committed suicide. As a result of the crime Mrs. Doty's mother, Mrs. Taylor, has become insane. Doty was 35 years old and a paroled prisoner from the Hutchinson reformatory.

Coolies and Formosans Clash.
Tacoma, Wash., Dec. 31.—According to advice from this Orient a party of 195 coolies engaged in transporting camphor was attacked by Formosan insurgents late in November. 20 of them were killed of whom 19 were decapitated. Japanese troops and police were sent against the Formosans. A pitched battle took place in which more than 100 were killed. The heaviest losses were on the side of the Formosans.

Speaks For Schley.
New York, Dec. 31.—Captain James Parker of Perth Amboy, N. J., one of Admiral Schley's counsel, said Admiral Schley regards the case as closed, but that his friends will ask congress to vindicate him by retiring him on full pay and reimbursing him for the expenses of his trial.

Defended His Mother.

AGAINST VENEZUELA

Germany May Postpone Her
Naval Demonstration.

DESIRE INSURRECTION SUPPRESSED.

Kaiser's Minister Continuing Negotiations at Caracas.—Fleet in South American Waters to Be Augmented. Understanding Wanted With the People of the United States.

Caracas, Dec. 31.—It can be said with excellent authority that Germany's contemplated naval demonstration against certain Venezuelan ports will be postponed until the termination of the present revolution against President Castro.

Berlin, Dec. 31.—An official note published here says the negotiations between Germany and Venezuela continue, and that the German minister is still at Caracas.

The government intends to send one or two other small warships to reinforce the present German squadron in the Caribbean sea. The additions to Germany's naval force in the Caribbean will not be sufficient to give rise to suspicions among the people of the United States that Germany meditates anything beyond the collection of claims due German subjects. The German government desires, beyond anything else in this matter, to avoid disturbing the government of the people of the United States. German newspapers are full of expressions of this kind, and many of these expressions are so much alike that it is easy to infer their utterance was suggested by the government. A remarkable thing is the fact that there is not a single unkind expression towards the United States in any of this newspaper comment.

The Lokal Anzeiger says: "The task for our diplomacy is to make German interests prevail against Venezuela without, at the same time, losing touch with the American government. The authorities at Washington have, up to the present time, shown such intelligent comprehension of the situation and friendly disposition towards Germany's wishes, that no grounds for apprehension exist at this point."

Killed an Inoffensive Man.
Memphis, Dec. 31.—Four white men killed J. M. Rhea, an inoffensive passenger on train No. 6 of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley branch of the Illinois Central railroad, near Leland, Miss., cut the locomotive from the train and forced the engineer to run to Cleveland, Miss. All four men were arrested. They are Ashley Coker, a prominent business man of Cleveland; A. M. Phipps, postmaster at Shelby; Thomas Lauderdale, said to be a relative of Phipps; and a man named Blackman, residence unknown. The shooting was the outcome of a trifling dispute.

Both Killed on Wedding Day.
Muncie, Ind., Dec. 31.—John P. Edwards and Mrs. Nancy Reeder, who were killed on a Panhandle grade crossing a mile south of Mt. Summit, were going to Newcastle to be married. Mr. Edwards drove to Mrs. Reeder's country home near Springfield, and they were to surprise their friends by the wedding. He was 35 years old, with a family of six, and she was a rich widow and had practiced law. A daughter of the woman is seriously injured.

Girl Saved by a Dog.
Toledo, Dec. 31.—A large shepherd dog saved Alpena Courtney, 14, living near Perrysburg, from being brutally ravished by two tramps. The tramps tried to criminally assault her, but just as she was about to collapse the dog sank his teeth into the flesh of the tramps repeatedly and tore their clothing into shreds. The ruffians made off, severely lacerated.

Busy Burglars.
Stockport, O., Dec. 31.—Burglars entered the saloon of John F. Shields, robbed the money drawer, helped themselves to drinkables and fired the building, entailing a loss of $2,000. They also entered the depot of the Ohio and Little Kanawha, but obtained nothing of value. They broke open the toolhouse, stole a handcar and made their escape.

The Two Gardners.
Cincinnati, Dec. 31.—Eddie Gardner of Wheeling and Gus Gardner of Philadelphia fought a 70-round draw before the Phoenix Athletic club here. The men fought straight Marquis of Queensbury rules. Gus Gardner had a slight advantage in height and reach and was the aggressor throughout, but was unable to land a knockout blow on his opponent.

Control of Match Market.
Akron, O., Dec. 31.—O. C. Barber is at home from a recent European trip. He states that he has been successful in getting control of the match business in some of the countries he visited, and that it is the plan of the Diamond Match company to eventually get control of the match-making industry of the world.

GRIGGS COMPANY

ABOUT TO ERECT ANOTHER BIG
BUILDING AT CLEVELAND.New Structure Which is to Cost $70,000 Will Have Frontage on Huron Street.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

A large brick building to cost $70,000 will soon be erected by H. H. Griggs on the northeast corner of Huron and Miami streets, as an addition to his dry goods and carpet store, at Nos. 122 and 124 Prospect street. The two buildings will join in the rear so as to form one store.

The property has just been purchased from Isadore Lehman by Joshua Gregg and as soon as the contract was signed it was leased to H. H. Griggs for a period of ninety-nine years. The property has a frontage of 100 feet and a depth of 150.

The entire ground will be covered by the structure which Mr. Griggs is about to erect.

For some time the Griggs company has been negotiating for the property, as they have been badly crowded in their present quarters and have long wished to enlarge their building. The present lease affords the company the desired opportunity.

Plans for the erection of the new building are already being made, the designs having been drawn by Architects Hubbel & Benes. The structure, which will be of brick and either four or six stories in height, will cost about $70,000. Actual work on the building will be commenced some time during March or April, and the firms expect to occupy the building next fall. The three small buildings which occupy the ground at the present time will soon be removed.

This extension will double the building capacity of the firm and will make the concern one of the largest in the state.

That which follows is the experience of a resident of Newark. Incidentally cannot exist about the statement because it can easily be investigated.

It was just across the loins where the greatest strains fall, so that I could not get up when I was down, I awakened in the morning I moved about at my household work scarcely able to shift my body. As I was often in actual torture. For three months I suffered all the time until one day a neighbor gave me a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills, I took them and the benefit was so apparent I sent to Crayton's drug store and procured a box. Before very long I discarded the plasters, the kidney secretions looked clear and natural and I had not a pain in my head or back."

SEVEN ON ONE TICKET.

A dispatch from Woodbury, N. J., says: Conductor Wilson, of the Glassboro accommodation, on Saturday evening, found among his passengers a woman with six children, with a ticket for the mother only. The woman explained that her boys and girls were all under five years of age. The conductor scratched his head and walked to the smoker. He asked some of the occupants of the car to solve the problem; none, however, ventured an opinion. Finally the conductor asked the woman how many twins there were among the lot. "These two in my lap and these two in the corner of the seat are twins," said the mother with a smile.

TWO VALUES.

HERE are two values to every purchase—what it costs and what it pays you. Cork costs 8 cents a pound, but if you are drowning half a mile from shore, its value would be "not what you pay for cork, but what cork saves you." When a woman buys soaps she often confuses the two values. She sees only what she pays. She overlooks what she receives. Now a single cake of Ivory Soap pays back from ten to twenty times its cost in the saving it effects. Test it yourself! Vegetable Oil Soap. Ivory white. It floats!

COX RETICENT

Not Committed to Any Candidate in The Legislative Contest, Except Price for Speaker.

Cincinnati, Dec. 31.—Many reports have been circulated regarding the attitude of George B. Cox, the Republican leader of this city, in connection with the contest at Columbus between the friends of Senator Foraker and of Senator Hanna, over the organization of the Ohio legislature. While Mr. Cox himself still maintains reticence, his closest friends say that all of these reports are without authority except the announcement that the Hamilton county leader is for Representative Price of Athens for speaker. Many of the Republican members and others interested in the contest have visited Mr. Cox, and some of them have given out interviews after their conferences with him. His closest friends say there is no foundation for the claims in these interviews on either side excepting the preference for speaker, and they assert that up to now Mr. Cox is not committed to any candidate or their representatives except to Price.

The contest for control of the legislature is said to have extended beyond factional and even beyond political lines and to have involved most of the corporations and commercial enterprises that are supposed to be interested in what legislation may be made and also in what legislation is to be prevented if possible.

May Kill Federal Plan.
Cleveland, Dec. 31.—Judge Disette of the common pleas court handed down a decision that, if upheld by the higher courts, will probably result in the killing of the federal plan of municipal government in Ohio. The court holds that Director of Charities Cooley of Mayor Johnson's cabinet, who has recently pardoned a number of prisoners from the Cleveland work house, had no authority to do so. "The legislature," said Judge Disette, "has no power to pardon, and therefore cannot confer the power on any executive official, such as the director of charities."

CHESS

NEWARK WINS TWO FROM COLUMBUS EXPERTS.

A. H. Brice Wins From T. I. Brown Who is President of Tri State Association.

Three chess experts from Columbus came over from that city Monday evening, and engaged in a social chess evening with the members of the Newark Chess Club.

They were Frank I. Brown, president of the Tri-State Chess association; W. H. Sage and Dr. Gares.

The three contest games played resulted as follows: Amos H. Brice vs. Brown, Brice won; W. H. Sage vs. D. H. Murphy, Sage won; Dr. Gares vs. Tannehill, Tannehill won.

The game between Brice and Brown lasted practically the whole evening. The evening's play, indulged in socially, resulted as follows:

Other players taking part were: Messrs. Beatty, Suter, Edmiston, Peck, Fitzgerald, Percy, Banton and others.

The Columbus players were enthusiastic about their treatment by the Newark Chess Club.

Upon their arrival in the city they were given a dinner at Harvey's restaurant, and before they started for home they were served with lunch.

The Newark players have been invited to go to Columbus on Washington's birthday, and a good time is expected.

London, Dec. 31.—Attorneys for the Duke of Manchester declare there is absolutely no truth in the report published in the United States that the duke, with the assistance of his father-in-law, Eugene Zimmerman of Cincinnati, had offered Miss Portia Knight, the actress, $20,000 in full settlement of her claim for damages resulting from alleged breach of promise of marriage. The lawyers say no negotiations for a settlement have occurred, are occurring or will occur on the subject. The trial, they add, will take its course in the ordinary way.

"UND how vhas dot asthma now, Mr. Sprocket?" asked the German grocer the other day as the janitor of Mr. Murphy's flats entered the store with his legs dragging and his shoulders humped up.

"It's slowly taking me to the grave," was the reply. "That is, it would be if I was doing any work around the flat, which I am not. A janitor with the asthma is exempt from all work except giving advice to the tenants. I think I shall manage to pull through the winter."

"Und how vhas dose families now? I hope nobody haf some more quarrels."

OR THE HOUSEWIFE

Laces For House Furniture.

From present indications lace promises to be more in vogue than ever for centerpieces, doilies and decorations for table linen as well as for the dainty covers that add so much to the beauty of dressing rooms, battenberg and the heavy torchons being more extensively used. One of the prettiest of dresser covers can be made by heavy linen with a torchon insertion two inches wide set in about two and a half inches from the edge and a border of lace to match that is put on perfectly flat with mitered corners. Battenberg and renaisance lace pieces having a beautiful flower design embroidered on them are among the newest things in fancy-work.

Tatting has been resurrected with other old fashioned things of the same period, and those who used to delight in wearing the shuttle in and out in fashioning this delicate work will now have a chance to take up their old pastime. It is combined with fine linen and makes the loveliest of table covers. The most fashionable curtains of the moment are of Arabian lace, and as the tint of this lace is a very peculiar one, being a duller shade than cerise, they will be very difficult to imitate. For the large square windows there is a new style of curtain that is lambrequin shaped. It hangs down smooth and straight from the top, with a point in the center, and the sides continue to the floor and are looped back. A wide insertion outlines the sides, and connecting scallop, to which is gathered a full ruffle of this exquisite Arabian lace.

Hints to Housewives.

A good way to clean zinc utensils is to dip a piece of cotton in kerosene and rub the articles with it until the dirt is removed. Dry afterward with a clean cloth so as to get rid of all grease.

Absorbent cotton, it is said, if applied at once, will prevent any traces of a stain being left by oil, milk or cream spilled on woolen goods.

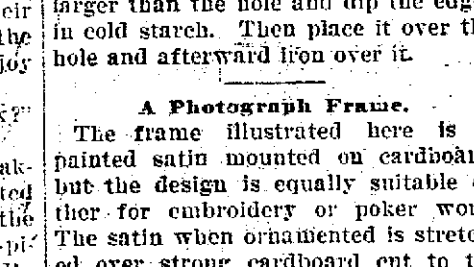

If your floors are not hardwood and you wish to furnish with rugs, first give them a coat of paint, then two or three coats of varnish, rubbing with sandpaper and finish with a good oiling and polishing.

Ice cream is said to be an infallible remedy for hiccoughs.

If when ironing a curtain you discover a hole in it, take a piece of the best part of an old curtain a little larger than the hole and dip the edges in cold starch. Then place it over the hole and afterward iron over it.

A Photograph Frame.

The frame illustrated here is of painted satin mounted on cardboard, but the design is equally suitable either for embroidery or poker work. The satin when ornamented is stretched over strong cardboard cut to the shape shown, to give a soft effect. A thin layer of wadding should be stretched over the cardboard before the satin is put over it. The satin should be cut an inch larger than the card, so that the edges turn well over and can be fixed by secotine. A thin piece of card is covered with satin for the back. It is fixed by secotine. A loop of ribbon, with bows, is secured at the back of the frame to hang it up by.

Young Ladies' Journal.

To Clean Outrich Feathers.

According to an authority, white ostrich feathers can be cleaned by making a mixture of white soap shaved in to small pieces, boiling water and a little soda. After this has dissolved and cooled dip the feathers into it and then draw them gently through the hand, repeating the operation several times. Then rinse thoroughly in clean water, with a trace of bluing added. Shake, dry and curl. Feather curling, however, is work that calls for special training, and amateurish efforts in this direction are not always successful.

THE COURTS.

IN SUPREME COURT.

The case of Edward H. Everett against the City of Newark has been set for hearing in the Supreme Court at Columbus for oral argument on Wednesday, Jan. 25.

ALIMONY CASE.

Sophia Lofgren, by her attorneys, Smythe & Smythe, has filed her petition with the County Clerk, asking that she be decreed alimony from her husband, John Lofgren, of the Jewett Car Works.

The Jewett Car Works is also so made a party to the suit. The plaintiff says that she was married to the defendant on August 13, 1894, and that three children were born of said marriage, all of whom are minors.

The plaintiff charges the defendant with being a habitual drunkard, extreme cruelty and failure to provide. She says that her husband is an employee of the Jewett Car Works earning a salary of $65 per month, and that there is now due him $20, which he is attempting to collect for the purpose of depriving her and the children of the benefit of the same. The plaintiff asks that pending this action she be allowed temporary alimony and that at the final hearing she be allowed alimony; that she be given control of the children and also asks that the Jewett Car Works be enjoined from paying to the defendant any part of its indebtedness to him.

FLOWER AND TREE.

A single leaf of the orange tree carefully planted will often take root and grow.

Rosin and tallow in equal parts make an excellent covering for wounds in fruit trees.

"Belling" a tree—that is, killing it by destroying the bark in a circle around the trunk—injures it for lumber.

In transplanting trees all roots that have become bruised or broken should be cut clean away behind the broken part.

A pan of water kept steaming in the stove will keep the atmosphere in good condition for the growth of house plants during the winter.

Trees should always be trimmed when young and growing in such a manner that there will be no necessity for cutting off large limbs.

Wood mold, provided it is free and free from roots and sticks, with the addition of a little well rotted compost, makes a splendid soil for the pots or boxes in which to grow the house plants in winter.

Orchards generally produce full crops only every other year. This is because the full crop of one year so exhausts the fruit producing qualities of the soil that it is not able to make a full crop the next year.

Cold in Chest

Omega Oil You hear a good deal of the great progress in medical science, but there hasn't been so much progress after all. The doctors have not been able to improve on many of the simple old remedies used during the last hundred years. Every mother knows that old-fashioned sweet oil is a good thing to rub on the nose, throat and chest for a cold, and a doctor can't prescribe anything better or safer except Omega Oil. This Oil does all that sweet oil can do, and besides that it contains other ingredients that check and cure a cold in a wonderfully short time. It can be used on children with perfect safety, as it does not blister. A bottle in the house all the time may save a life or a doctor's bill.

The SPORTING WORLD

Fourier on Auto Driving.
Henri Fourier, the world's greatest chauffeur, has some very valuable ideas on the subject of auto driving. Fourier says that in order to become a trustworthy motorist a man must begin early and practice long. He must not become afflicted with that ever prevalent disease, overconfidence, and should always be cool and cautious.

The French speed demon names the ability to steer as being one of the important requisites for the successful chauffeur. He speaks as follows on the subject: "Any man who has ridden a bicycle should be able to adapt himself to auto driving without much trouble."

HENRI FOURIER ON HIS MOTOR MACHINE.
A steady hand is absolutely necessary, and practical experience as a steersman is the only means of obtaining it. "In regard to overconfidence, I will say this much. The man who affects to know everything about automobiles and automobilism is a dangerous personage to come in contact with. The worst smashups I have ever seen were brought about by operators who imagined that their reputations would shield them from all chance of mishap."

Indoor Athletic Meet in New York.

The annual winter athletic meet of the Knickerbocker Athletic club, which is scheduled for Madison Square Garden on the evening of Feb. 3, 1902, gives promise of being a very successful affair. At this meet the athletes, who make it a point to compete indoors throughout the winter season, will be dealt quite leniently with so far as spiked shoes are concerned, for there will be no restrictions. The competitors may wear spikes or not, as they wish.

The interscholastic team relay race, eight laps, each runner to run two laps, will no doubt prove the star event on the programme.

The other events are a 60 yard run, novice; 60 yard run, handicap; 220 yard run, handicap; 440 yard run, handicap; 880 yard run, handicap; three mile run, scratch; 440 yard run, novice; running high jump, handicap, and a 600 yard run, open to boys of the public schools of Greater New York.

The prizes will be new, novel and of exceptional value and without doubt the best prizes offered this year outside of the championship events. Entries close with J. E. Sullivan, 16 Park place, New York, Jan. 26.

Keeler Is In Demand.
Unless the owners of the Brooklyn Baseball club are wide awake they will lose that prince of ball players, the redoubtable Willie Keeler. The sturdy little outfielder has received a gilt edged offer from the Detroit club of the American league, which he intends to accept if the Brooklyn club does not meet it with one that would make it worth while for him to remain here.

"Business is business," says Keeler, "and I propose to go where I can get the most money, especially when the offer is of the gilt edged kind made by the Detroit club."

Wants Racing Course Shortened.
E. G. Storrow, Harvard's head rowing coach, has received much commendation in aquatic circles because of his suggestion to lower the distance of the annual eight oared race with Yale. Coach Storrow advocates that the race be rowed over a three instead of a four mile course. The scheme is a good one and will probably be accepted by the two colleges.

Lawson Loses His Trainer.
It is announced that Thomas W. Lawson has decided to quit the turf. This does not mean that he will go out of the horse business, but that he will pay no attention hereafter to racing. Jimmy Gatscomb, Lawson's trainer, has ended his service in that capacity and made arrangements to go into partnership with Scott Hudson, the Kentucky driver.

New West Point Football Captain.
Cadet Robert E. Boyers of the second class has been elected captain of the West Point football team. Cadet Boyer has been on the team since he entered as a plebe and is one of the solid players. Cadet Douglas MacArthur, son of General MacArthur, will be manager. He is also a member of the second class and stands at its head.

Arkansas Jockey Club's Dates.
The Arkansas Jockey club has announced the receipt of the official notification of the assignment of dates, March 24 to 29, inclusive, for the spring meeting.

Golfing Douglas Leaves America.
Findlay S. Douglas, the metropolitan golf champion, has sailed for England to spend five weeks at his home in Scotland.

UNCLE ELI'S FABLES.

He Contributes Another Batch of Interesting Stories.

(Copyright, 1901, by C. E. Lewis.)

The Wolf and the Hyena met at the junction of two forest paths, and, anxious to show his good breeding and hurt the feelings of the other, the Wolf bowed and scraped and said:

"My dear sir, it is for you to pass on your way, and I will follow you."

"I couldn't think of taking precedence over you," replied the Hyena, with a smirk, resolved to let it be known that he had studied etiquette to some purpose.

"But as you arrived a second or two ahead of me the choice is yours."

"I think I was a second or two behind, but in any event I yield to you."

"You are certainly obliging."

"And you are very considerate."

After the exchange of further compliments it was agreed that they should go forward side by side and thus avoid any question of precedence, but they had scarcely advanced ten rods when the earth gave way under their feet and they were precipitated into a pit dug by a Hunter.

Moral.—Courtesy costs nothing and always returns a profit.

One day as the Crane was hunting for food along the seashore he met a Clam, and after a few remarks had passed between them the Clam observed:

"I don't want to seem impertinent, but I should like to ask why you stand on your left leg about two-thirds of the time?"

"Why, as to that, I really can't tell you," replied the Crane, "but if standing on my left leg annoys you I will make a change."

"I wish you would try the right leg for a time. Of course I have no right to ask, but you see?"

"Oh, certainly, certainly!"

The Crane shifted to the right leg and looked for approbation, but the Clam shook his head and said:

"It is no better than the other pose. Suppose you stand on both legs. I know it must look cheeky on my part, but—"

"Anything to oblige," interrupted the Crane, and he planted both feet firmly ### under his body and stood like a rock.

"That is better, but it can be improved on. Of course it is really none of my business to criticise you, but—"

"Go right ahead and tell me how to improve."

"Well, I should like to see you stand on your head."

"With pleasure."

Thereupon the Crane lowered his head and elevated his legs, but the pose had scarcely become artistic when the quicksand got a grip on his neck and held him fast until he was smothered.

Moral.—A bowlegged man should never hesitate to take off his legs to oblige.

MISTREATED.

Neuralgia is a Very Much Mistreated

Complaint—It's an All Nerve Trouble Curable by the Great Nerve Medicine Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills—It's Newark Evidence That Proves.

The remarkable number of neuralgia cures in Newark by Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills has removed all question of doubt as to the efficacy of this medicine in curing neuralgia.

Trend of the testimony is to effectual cure, that is the difference from other preparations that only render temporary relief.

Mrs. E. D. Everts of No. 51 West Harrison street, Newark, Ohio, says:

"Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills acted wonderfully well with me. Owing to neuralgia I was all broken down, very nervous and having had attacks of nervous sick headaches, and excitement bringing them on. It was suggested I get the Nerve Pills at Brick-er's City Drug Store and try them. I am more than glad I did so as I feel strong again, nerves steady and plenty of energy. Those sickening, prostrating headaches are a thing of the past and I am necessarily very much pleased with the Nerve Pills and their work."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

Crushed Corn.
Crushing corn seems to be satisfactory for calves, colts and all young cattle during the average season, particularly if they are being fed to the limit, says American Agriculturist. It is also desirable at any season for dairy cows. Corn and cob meal seem to be more satisfactory than cornmeal because of the fact that the cob, while it has no nutritive value, has a favorable effect on the animal's stomach. For steers two years old and particularly for healthy hogs it is doubtful whether any preparation of grain feed is necessary other than possibly the shelling of the corn near the end of the fattening period.

Value of Cornstalks.
The corn shredder is teaching the farmers to save all the corn fodder they have. One farmer refused to buy a corn reaper because it did not cut close enough to the ground. The Maine Farmer says that in well grown corn the lower six inches of the stalk represent a ton of fodder to the acre, which may be one-tenth of the crop. Chemists have told us that the stalk below the ear is much more valuable in food elements per ton than that above the ear, and when reduced by shredding it will be all eaten.

Placing a Henhouse.
In placing a house let it face the south or as nearly so as possible, says New England Homestead. It is cooler in summer and warmer in winter than one facing either east or west. The sun in summer during the hottest part of the day is nearly directly overhead and does not shine in so strongly in a south window. In winter, when low in the heavens, the south window catches more of the sun's rays.

Hard Milking Cows.
A hard milker should have a couple of calves put on her. After these are weaned, if she does not milk easier, get some more calves and let her fat them.

Cat Bone For Poultry.
Green cut bone is the greatest egg producer and stimulant known. Never use moldy or sour bones, and feed them moderately.

HINTS FOR FARMERS

Winter Care of Live Stock.

Now is the time of year when the farmer and stockman, in order to avoid serious losses among his stock, should see that his stables are warm and comfortable against the cold blizzards of the approaching winter, says an Indiana correspondent of Prairie Farmer. Every year the knell of warning is sounded through the agricultural journals. Yet in spite of this there are still many farmers who are careless and negligent in this respect. In traveling over the country one will see stables with the doors off of the hinges, boards knocked off of the siding behind the horses, allowing the rain and snow to blow in on them. Hogs are often seen lying on the frozen ground for want of protecting shelter squealing day and night from cold. The feed is another example of the farmer's negligence. The fodder is left scattered all over the field and in a bleached and washed out condition is thrown about the barnyard for the stock to pick up. Long before spring these farmers, who were sure of an abundance of feed, are asking themselves what has become of it, and in spite of all their feeding their stock is poor and rough.

Winter Horsehoes.

Speaking of an icy time reminds us that the horses should be shod so that they can be prepared to travel in such a case, says American Cultivator. Either have them rough shod before such a season comes, or, if they have not far to go at a time or heavy loads to draw, they may be worked without shoes in the winter on the dirt roads. A barefooted horse slips less than one with shoes the calks of which are dull, and many farmers drive them so in winter, though it would be scarcely advisable if they had to take heavy loads of produce to market over the paved streets of the city. Many a good horse have we seen badly injured by slipping and straining, though he did not fall, while the number killed because of broken legs, that might not have been broken if they had been properly shod, is great every winter.

Keep the Good Sows.

The high price of pork should not be an inducement to any one to fatten a good brood sow this winter, says American Agriculturist. If pork is high now, it may be expected that good pigs will be in demand next spring at good prices. When we say a good brood sow, we mean one that is prolific and of good form, one that is a good mother and raises good pigs. To do this she should not have less than six or seven pigs at her first litter and give milk enough to keep them growing until they are weaned, and she should not be cross or quarrelsome with them or with those who take care of her, for that is a fault that usually increases with age in hogs and others.

The Barn Door.

A good many people wonder why their sheep suffer from colds and "snuffles" in spite of the good care taken to house them and protect them from inclement weather, says National Stockman. The trouble sometimes is that the sheep are too carefully housed. They are put into a tight barn, their bodies warm it up, and when they are turned into the cold air or wind they take cold. The main thing with sheep is to keep them dry, not warm, and especially not warm and cold. Leave the door of the barn open if it is warm and the sheep are to run out during the cold weather. Cool air without drafts is better for them than warm nights and cold days.

Crushed Corn.

Crushing corn seems to be satisfactory for calves, colts and all young cattle during the average season, particularly if they are being fed to the limit, says American Agriculturist. It is also desirable at any season for dairy cows. Corn and cob meal seem to be more satisfactory than cornmeal because of the fact that the cob, while it has no nutritive value, has a favorable effect on the animal's stomach. For steers two years old and particularly for healthy hogs it is doubtful whether any preparation of grain feed is necessary other than possibly the shelling of the corn near the end of the fattening period.

Reward Paid.

Mr. Thomas Dunaway was down from Granville Monday afternoon for the purpose of paying the reward he had offered for the discovery of the remains of his son, Frank. He paid Albert Shultz and William House $100, and these men settled with David McLaughlin, who contested payment of the reward, by giving him $10. Mr. Dunaway keenly appreciates the kindness that has been shown in his great bereavement and he thanks all who have assisted in the search for the missing son, whose remains were found in a tank at the Artificial Gas plant.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; none comes out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

AMUSEMENTS.

Charles O. Porter's big farce comedy "All a Mistake", Auditorium Dec. 31.

Klaw & Erlanger's Troubadours have closed their three months run in "The Liberty Belles" at the Madison-Square Theatre, and, after a week in Brooklyn, will play engagements in Boston, Newark, Baltimore and Providence.

"All a Mistake" which opened its engagement at the Park Theatre yesterday to a large audience, is really funny. The specialties are up-to-date. The voices of the chorus very strong. The costumes and scenery were very pretty.—Indianapolis News
At the Auditorium tonight.

Nixon & Zimmerman's company presenting "The Messenger Boy" will close its long run at Daly's Saturday January 4th, and will tour the principal cities of the country in a special train consisting of three 65 feet cars, two special Pullman sleepers, a day coach and a dining car. The company en tour will number 140 people including special orchestra and stage machinists.

All the great specialties which Klaw & Erlanger introduced into the Drury Lane spectacle, "The Sleeping Beauty" at the Broadway Theatre, New York have been interpolated into the current Drury Lane Christmas pantomime in London. English managers are beginning to appreciate the value of quick action specialty features which are so popular here.

AMALIA MORA THURSDAY.

Lovers of music of the lighter order will have a chance to judge of the quality of what is accredited with being the comic opera surprise of the New Year, "Amalia Mora." The book is by the late Gus Heege and the plot for there is a plot, is laid in the land of song and story, picturesque Sweden. The second and last act is in America and full scope is given for scene color, and costume embellishments. The music is by a young composer who hails from Cleveland, Max Lawden, and is of the kind that will leave a good taste in the memory and cause the hearer to hum the "The Cavalry March." "The Mighty Old Oak is Down" and that catching jingling comedy hit, "Read Characters by the Tree." The company is a large one and numbers among the principals Carolyn Duane, Blanche Chapman, Emily Gardner, Arthur Donaldson, Winfield Blake, Eugene Walton and Frank Pruette. Auditorium January 2nd.

VOLUNTEER ORGANIST.

Rarely has a play met with such a flattering reception as was accorded "The Volunteer Organist" at the Academy of Music last night. Not only was standing room at a premium early in the evening, but many late comers had to be actually turned away from the box office. It is a play that leads us into the fields, the orchards, the mountains—where heart interest to beat. T hanges on every branch of the tree where it grows in abundance amid the waving corn, and where it struts between the rocks and crannies of the hillsides. It was received with out and long applause.—Evening Star, Washington D. C. Oct. 8, 1901

The Academy of Music has in this week's attraction, "The Volunteer Organist," a play that will no doubt bring a period of prosperity to the office such as that theatre has no enjoyed heretofore this year. The audience that taxed the seating and standing capacity of the house last night showed its liking for the drama by an unusual amount of applause, and by the time the curtain had descended for the final time there was no doubt as to the success of the offering so far as Washington is concerned.—The Evening Times, Washington, D. C. Oct. 8, 1901
Auditorium Jan. 4.

DAVID HARUM COMING.

"David Harum" announced by Charles Frohman for one night only at the Auditorium in the month of January will attract many who will like to see the realization of the story and particularly the hard hearted but really kind old David. The dramatic form of the story is condensed into three acts of clever action many lines and situations crowding each other, so fast they come. The first act introduces David Harum, a fat, jolly, Chet Timson, the

FOR WOOSTER

An Unknown Millionaire Promises to Give Hundred Thousand Under Certain Conditions.

Woooster, O., Dec. 31.—A letter from a millionaire who has been hiding in the city, which was received from a certain trap and announced that a new millionaire had been discovered. He promised to give $100,000 to aid in building on condition that $40,000 be raised by the citizens of Woooster and $100,000 outside of Woooster. The trustee had to go to work at once to comply with the requirements. The appeal made by the University Relief committee of this city on behalf of this institution which recently sustained a loss of $250,000 by fire makes the following from Woooster, O., of local interest.

Edward Kibler reports that while many have responded to the request for subscriptions others have yet failed to reply. He hopes that all addressed will give Woooster a suitable New Year's gift.
